

PoolDawg Launches WPBA Pick'em Challenge

Test your skills, pick the winners of the WPBA Great Lakes Classic and win prizes

Lafayette, Colo.—May 8, 2009 — PoolDawg, the recognized leader in online billiards and game room supplies, is pleased to announce the launch of the WPBA Pick'em Challenge. Free to enter, this new game lets fans try to pick the winners of WPBA events starting with next month's WPBA Great Lakes Classic.

To play, just select which WPBA stars you think will finish in the Top 8. Points are awarded based on how the players finish and the Top 5 pickers will win gift certificates courtesy of PoolDawg.com. "We're extremely excited to bring this new game to our customers and pool fans across the globe" said Mike Feiman, PoolDawg's Director of Marketing. "Now, when fans tune in to watch the live stream of the Great Lakes Classic, they'll be able to not only cheer on their favorites but also keep track of how their picks are doing".

This new game is free to anyone who would like to play. For details, on this contest visit PoolDawg's official information page at <http://www.pooldawg.com/article/pooldawg-library/wpba-----great-lakes-classic-pick-em>
